Bachelor of Arts, Anthropology, May 2009. University of Colorado at Boulder, CO, USA

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

DIVERSITY RESIDENT LIBRARIAN, University of North Carolina at Greensboro Libraries, October 2018 - Present

- Planned and facilitated the 2019 Library Diversity Institute for Diversity Residents and the 2019 Library Diversity and Residency Studies (LDRS) Conference. Served on the editorial board for the new open access publication LDRS Journal.

- Facilitated focus groups and information sharing activities as part of an equity, diversity, and inclusion-centric assessment of the University Libraries' Strategic Plan, and for use in the new Strategic Plan development process.

- Attended the ICPSR Summer Program in Quantitative Methods of Social Research

- Completed rotation in Administration with a focus on project management, scholarly communication, and strategic planning; completed rotation in Reference, Outreach, and Instruction with a focus on application of the ACRL Framework in classroom instruction and assessment, and taught or co-taught over twenty library instruction classes; partial rotation in Digital Media Commons focused on campus-wide interdepartmental collaboration-building initiatives and planning a multi-city maker fair centered on collaborative pedagogy. Maker fair canceled due to COVID-19.

STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBER, Preservation of Electronic Government Information (PEGI) Project, August 2018 - Present. Previously: Graduate Student Assistant, March 2017-August 2018

- Research and Reporting: Co-wrote and edited project reports, statements, publications, and blog posts. Assisted in multimodal scan of electronic government information preservation practices by researching and documenting workflows and practices of federal agencies in producing born-digital information. Conducted interviews and focus groups with representatives from federal agencies, librarians, technologists, and researchers.

- Project Management: Managed biweekly steering committee meeting agendas and oversaw communication tools, coordinating between 6 to 18 steering committee and board members.

- Outreach: Created and maintained PEGI website, email, and social media accounts. Promoted PEGI through social media, listservs, webinars, and attendance at conferences and meetings. Planned, marketed, and coordinated production and technical support for webinars and virtual forums.

GRADUATE LIBRARY ASSISTANT - REFERENCE & RESEARCH, University of North Texas Libraries, January 2017-August 2018

- ◈ Provided reference and research assistance and circulation services at a combined services desk.
- ◈ Responded both in-person and via phone and email to the high-demand research needs of undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and community members at a high-traffic, public R1 Carnegie Institution University Library.
- ◈ Instructed patrons using print and electronic resources including introductions to data management plans and data visualization tools, and developed expertise in information-seeking methods and instruction.

LEADERSHIP AND FACILITATION

We Make Culture Hum: Digital Explorations of African American Musicians in the Piedmont. Project Coordinator, with Dr. Rhonda Jones, Dr. Armondo Collins, and Sarah Dorsey. March 2021 - Present. A digital humanities project that will highlight the music traditions and enduring legacy of African American artists from the Piedmont area. Utilizing photographs, maps, oral history, audio, video, and ephemera, the project brings together the University Archives, Music Library, and Library Digital Media Commons to offer interactive visualizations and an accessible digital archive of local musical history.

- ◈ Develop curriculum and supervision guidelines for three graduate or undergraduate student assistants.
- ◈ Provide instruction and support for student training on open-source research practices and digital media communications such as Wikimedia, OMEKA, Knightlab's StoryMap, and virtual reality technologies.

Library Diversity Institute 2019 and Library Diversity and Residency Studies Conference 2019 (IMLS Grant #RE-95-18-0042-18). Project Coordinator, with Dr. Martin Halbert and Gerald Holmes. October 2018 - Present. The Library Diversity Institutes project was a pilot program addressing the needs of library diversity residents and more broadly to advance diversity in academic librarianship.

- ◈ Managed project planning for the Institute, a three-day intensive orientation and training for 40 diversity resident librarians, as well as the Library Diversity and Residency Studies conference, a two-day convening of residency coordinators, academic library administrators, EDI scholars, residents, and students.
- ◈ Served on the formation board for the open access Library Diversity and Residency Studies Journal. Through consultation with the Library Publishing Coalition, designed and implemented customized editorial processes. Created and maintained the LDRS website.

The PEGI Project National Forums (IMLS Grant #LG-88-17-0129-17). Project Management Co-Lead & Meeting Facilitator. October 2017 - December 2018. The PEGI Project National Forums involved a series of in-person focus-group style mini-forums seeking input from various stakeholders on the issue of preservation and access to born-digital government information and data. They culminated in a National Forum held at the CNI Annual Meeting in Washington, DC, December 2018. This forum brought together 80 key stakeholders from federal agencies such as GPO and NARA, open government advocates, archivists, librarians, policy analysts, data specialists, scientists, journalists, digital preservationists, historians, and other disciplines.

- ◈ Coordinated information gathering, networking, and outreach to participants and stakeholder groups.
- ◈ Lead in-person focus group facilitation at all mini-forum stakeholder outreach events targeting non-librarian users and producers of government information and data, such as the American Historical Association and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Denton Data Day by Open Denton. Planning Committee & Event Facilitator. January–March, 2018. Civic hacking event bringing together community members, nonprofit organizers, and municipal leadership to explore, analyze, and encourage wider adoption of open data policies.

- ◈ Coordinated community outreach to local students, researchers, faculty, librarians, and technologists.

Twitter Scraping Workshop Using TWARC. Organizer, with Mark Phillips and Anusha Mantripragada. February 21, 2018. Planning, marketing, and day-of management of the event aimed at graduate students and researchers.

Code4Lib South Central Regional Meeting. Co-Organizer, with Mark Phillips and Anusha Mantripragada. August 11, 2017. Unconference-style event bringing together regional Code4Lib members for lightning talks, scoped workshops, breakout sessions, and hackathons.

- ◈ Assisted with planning, marketing, and day-of management of the event.
- ◈ Attended a Data Carpentry workshop.

#DataRescueDenton. Program Director. January - May, 2017. A hackathon-style event aimed at bringing together archivists, librarians, data users, and citizen scientists to scrape and preserve at-risk environmental data. One of many Data Rescue events organized with the University of Pennsylvania's Program in Environmental Humanities DataRefuge project and with support from the Environmental Data & Governance Initiative (EDGI). Event concluded the 2017 UNT Open Access Symposium.

- ◈ Sought and received funding support from the UNT University Libraries and the UNT Library and Information Science Students Association, as well as obtained a donated meeting site from a community co-working space.
- ◈ Planned, solicited, and coordinated event speakers & support volunteers such as Data Refuge Project's Margaret Janz, coding specialists, and web archiving experts.
- ◈ Coordinated attendees, volunteers, experts, and educators for the hackathon.
